Introduction of Tour

[Hyeri Art Valley]
Korean artists of various field of work such as writers, painters, actors, architects and musicians constructed the cultural town of Hyeri. Within this community, there are residential, in-house art galleries and museums. Artists make a living by opening exhibitions, trading or selling their artwork. Currently, there are about 40 museums, exhibitions, concert halls and bookstores, and around 20-30 more are expected to be added. About 20 cafes and food courts are included in these buildings for the convenience of visitors.
