Introduction of Tour

Korean Folk Village
Korean Folk Village introduces traditional culture from the late Joseon period to both local and international visitors through cultural classes experience, shrine faith, seasonal customs and others. Also, the village shows various places with unique features such as a farming village, private house, official districts, Confucian academy, boarding (village school), and a village street in realistic descriptions, as well as a nobleman’s house and traditional workshop.
Introduction of Tour

[Hoeseong Fortress [UNESCO World Heritage]]

Hoeseong Fortress is an impressive structure from the latter part of the Joseon Dynasty (1392-1910) and the official fortress of Suwon City. General Yi Sun-sin, the great naval general of the Joseon Dynasty, was born here. The fortress was constructed from 1395 to 1396, and was built as a display of the King Taejo’s power. The fortress was designated as Historic Site No. 3 in January 1983, and in December 1997, it was designated a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site. A variety of performances and events are held at the fortress every day, and Suwon Hoeseong Cultural Festival takes place here in autumn.

[Haeunggung Palace]

A Taegunggung is a temporary palace where the king and royal family retreated to during a war. Hoeseonggung Palace is the largest one of these, used by the Joseon kings since the time of King Sejong.

In addition to being used as a shelter during war, King Sejong also stayed here during trips to worship at his father’s tomb. The palace was the location of a splendid festival held on the 80th birthday of his mother, Haeunggung Palace, and many other events, including award ceremonies for successful candidates of special national exams. The palace is one of the three largest South Korean palaces and is a national treasure. The changing of the guard ceremony is held at the front gate every Sunday from April to October.
