Introduction of Tour

[Chungdong First Methodist Church]

The Chungdong Church, having been completed in 1898, is Korea’s first Protestant church. The Church has been declared the 236th greatest achievement, displaying a North American style Gothic architecture. Inside the church grounds stands a bust of the founder, Minister Appenteller, and a 50th year commemoration memorial. In 1899, the church appeared in a monthly publication magazine called Church as having foreseen 1st summer Bible studies and also one of the leading churches who does missionary work. Chungdong Church is located in the center of the beautiful Chungdong Street and is especially beautiful in autumn, when the leaves fall from the trees that line the street. Chungdong Theater, Deoksugung Palace and Seoul Museum of Art are also in the vicinity, making it a great place for tourism.
