Introduction of Tour

Imjingak, located 7.5 km from the Military Demarcation Line, is now at the forefront of tourism related to the Korean War. Imjingak was built in 1952 with the hope that someday, unification would be possible. The three-storied Imjingak is surrounded by several monuments, Unification Park and North Korea Center.
Introduction of Tour

[The 3rd Tunnel]

The 3rd Tunnel was discovered in 1978 by South Korean forces. It spans over 1,868m in length, 2m in width, and 2m in height and is located 2.1 km from Seoul. It is estimated that approximately 10,000 asylum seekers would move through the tunnel per hour. The tunnel is similar to the 2nd Tunnel, but it was thought to be more threatening as an invasion tool than the 1st and 2nd Tunnels. Located only 0km away from Yongdok toward the south and 3.5km from the Tangleton area, it is accessible by car after about 45 minutes only.

Introduction of Tour

[Dora Station & Dora Observatory]

Dora Station, a railway station on the Gyegu line, is the northernmost stop on South Korea's railway line. Located 50 km from Seoul and 203 km from Pyongyang. Situated in Paju, Gyegu line and at the northernmost point of the Military Demarcation Line. Dora Observatory is the first Sosogbo Observatory.
