[Nakdong Estuary Eco-Center]

[Naksan Market]

[Introduction of Tour]

Following the Korean War, the people who fled to Busan set up stalls in order to make a living and this was the beginning of the Naksan Market (originally known as Naksan-dong Market). The market is very large, it is surrounded by residential buildings, and is connected to the Naksan-dong Market and other smaller markets. The market stocks a wide variety of goods, and you can find almost everything you would ever need.
